

Resources	Activities	Outputs	Short-Term Outcomes	Long-Term Outcomes	Goals
Executive Leadership (Board of Directors, Executive Director, Deputy Director, Finance Director) Program Staff (PAT Director, HIPYPY Director, Project Coordinator) Evaluation Staff (Data Manager, Data Interns, Evaluation Contractors) and data measurement systems/tools National Trainers (PAT and HIPYPY) National Office support and curriculum (PAT National Center and HIPYPY USA) PAT &amp; HIPYPY Program Site Partners Program Sites' Local Resources/Partners Parent Possible and Colorado HIPYPY &amp; PAT Program Site Funders	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>* Conduct resource development for local HIPYPY and PAT program sites</li> <li>* Provide guidance and support to communities seeking to implement HIPYPY and/or PAT</li> <li>* Provide fiscal and programmatic fidelity monitoring and on-site consultation to program sites</li> <li>* Provide training &amp; technical assistance to program site staff</li> <li>* Create statewide evaluation plan and oversee data collection/reporting</li> <li>* Evaluate HIPYPY/PAT program outcomes and effectiveness</li> <li>* Provide leadership, advocacy, and visibility for HIPYPY and PAT in Colorado</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>* Grant amount(s) awarded to each program site and use of funds</li> <li>* Number of program sites served and satisfaction with services</li> <li>* Number, types and quality of training provided to program sites</li> <li>* Number, counties and demographics of parents and children served</li> <li>* Services provided by program sites (number of home visits, group connections, screenings, etc.)</li> <li>* Program and evaluation data and analysis (individual program site and aggregate)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>* Funds are used according to grant guidelines</li> <li>* Program sites are implemented and operating with model fidelity</li> <li>* Program site staff receive high quality training to provide effective delivery of curriculum</li> <li>* Program sites receive T/A and support needed to operate effectively</li> <li>* Program sites receive systems and support needed to efficiently collect data</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>* Improved quality and visibility of early childhood home visitation programs</li> <li>* Increased parent knowledge and confidence</li> <li>* Increased parent involvement in their child's development and education</li> <li>* Increased immunization rates and early detection of delays and health issues</li> <li>* Improved progress toward children achieving developmental milestones</li> <li>* Improved school readiness through enhanced:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Cognitive abilities/general knowledge</li> <li>• Language and literacy/pre-literacy skills</li> <li>• Social-emotional development</li> <li>• Academic achievement</li> <li>• Fine and gross motor skills</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	PAT and HIPYPY in Colorado are implemented with model fidelity and achieving outcomes expected through national research Parents become actively involved in their communities Children receive early intervention for social, emotional, and/or developmental delays and health issues Parents increase positive parenting practices Overall child well-being is enhanced including reduction of child abuse and neglect Children enter kindergarten ready to learn and are successful in school and throughout life